Workplace Insertion Project (P.I.L.)	Students enrolling on the Bachelors' Degree Course (equivalent) in Economics at the University of Ferrara may apply for a place on the Workplace Insertion Project (P.I.L., Percorso di Inserimento Lavorativo) – one of its kind in Italy. The aim of the Project is to create an integrated learning pathway of academic and occupational training. The pathway features an estimated 18 months of theoretical, practical and on-the-job training, as part of a work placement to be held in a private business, public administration body or international institution. Those participating in sub-project 1 of the University of Ferrara Workplace Insertion Project and passing the final exam will be awarded a total of 4 type F credits, in place of the Work Placement module exams A (2 credits) and B (2 credits). The mark awarded in the final exam of sub-project 1 will be converted into thirtieths (if not already in thirtieths) and associated with the recognized credits. Those participating in sub-project 2 of the Workplace Insertion Project will undertake a work placement of 3 months and may be given an extra mark towards their final score, provided that it is applicable and relevant to the Workplace Insertion Project.
State exam	The Bachelor' Degree (equivalent) in Economics (categories LM-18 and LM-33) entitles the holders to sit the State Exam for qualification as an Expert Book-keepers, after completion of an internship. Those who pass the State Exam are also entitled to register with the Guild of Accountants and Expert Book-keepers under Section B " Expert Book-keepers ". In conformity to the framework agreement between the Ministry of Education (MIUR) and the National Council of Accountants and Expert Book-keepers (CNDCEC), signed in 2014, the Ferrara Guild of Accountants and Expert Book-keepers and the University of Ferrara have stipulated a convention detailing the terms and conditions of facilitated access to the State Exam. In this regard, students may be exonerated from sitting the first written exam. The University of Ferrara is an accredited centre for the State Exam. Further information can be found on the website: http://eco.unife.it/it/lavoro/libera-professione
Course duration options	Students may seek authorization to follow the course over a time period other than that prescribed, provided that they adhere to the syllabus outlined in the Degree Course Regulations Pursuant to and by effect of the University Teaching Regulations, students not wishing to complete the syllabus within the normal duration may choose either:

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ A syllabus of longer duration than the norm, by enrolling on one semester, i.e., the individual modules of the degree course in question, provided that they have taken any prescribed preparatory modules ▪ A syllabus of shorter duration than the norm (but a minimum of two years), by bringing forward any work placements or internships, or by application to the Faculty Council. The Council will deliberate on individual proposals for modified timetables, and either give their approval or seek agreement with the student regarding further modifications. Should the education system change during their university career, the part-time student will be allowed to continue their studies as part of the new system, and thereby to complete any outstanding years on a course that has been deactivated. The Council will examine the previous career and deliberate on the transferral of the credits already awarded, and those yet to be obtained.
Recognition of overseas qualifications	For the Degree Course in Economics, recognition of degrees taken abroad will be deliberated upon by the Council upon receipt of written application with the studied syllabus attached. For further information regarding this procedure, please see the Ufficio Mobilità internazionale e studenti stranieri (International Student Affairs Office) – Via Savonarola, 9 – e-mail: mob_int@unife.it Website: http://www.unife.it/mobilita-internazionale
Convalidation of exams and recognition of credits	Any requests for convalidation of exams or attendance must be presented, with a copy of the studied syllabus attached, to the Students' Secretary in via Savonarola, 9, and forwarded to the Faculty Council. Recognition of credits from professional experience may be possible if the level of knowledge and skills is attested to by a placement test or training course score. Pursuant to and by effect of Article 14, Paragraph 1, of Law n° 240/2010, and with the exception of that provided for by Paragraph 2 of the same article, a maximum of 12 credits may be awarded for previous professional experience. See the following web page for the convalidation criteria applied by the Faculty Council: http://eco.unife.it/it/didattica/corsi-laurea/informazioni-utili-studenti/riconoscimento-crediti/linee-guida-convalida
Changing category	Students enrolled on the inter-category degree course wishing to modify their category and continue their studies in the other category foreseen on the study programme do not have to pay a transferral fee. A transferral fee is, however, applicable to those wishing to change category after completion of the entire course. Applications for change of category for students who enrol on the second year of the Degree Course in Economics for the new academic year will not be examined by the Faculty Council, and the student will automatically be accepted onto the requested year. Particular types of requests by students already accepted on the degree course following transferral from another university, career abbreviation, recognition of credits from previous professional experience, including those obtained from post-secondary education, will, however, be examined by the Faculty Council. Applications for change of category must be presented to the Students' Secretary. For more information on changing category and the terms of the application procedure, please see the course website: www.unife.it/economia/economia
Students transferring from other universities	The Faculty Council entrusts the Teaching Commission with verifying the particulars of students transferring from other degree courses to the Degree Course in Economics, Markets and Management, the convalidation of any exams passed, and establishing any integration of credits, as well as the entrance level in terms of course year. For students transferring from other universities, the Teaching Commission will examine their previous academic career, determine that still to be undertaken, and make decisions, according to pre-established criteria, within the terms and conditions laid down in the University Teaching Regulations, regarding recognition of previously awarded credits. See the following web page for the convalidation criteria applied by the Faculty Council: http://eco.unife.it/it/didattica/corsi-laurea/informazioni-utili-studenti/riconoscimento-crediti/linee-guida-convalida
Joint study programme with the Institut Supérieur d'Économie et de Management (ISEM) of the Université Nice Sophia Antipolis (France)	A joint study programme with the ISEM of the Université Nice Sophia Antipolis (France) is in effect, and enables students to be awarded both the Bachelor's Degree (equivalent) (category L-33) and the Licence en Economie et Gestion. A maximum number of five students from the University of Ferrara per academic year will be accepted on the programme, and these will be selected following a call for candidates published annually, and open to students enrolled on the second year of the Degree Course in Economics, who may take the third year in Nice and receive the two qualifications. Information and details will be posted on the websites:
